FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clearview Public Library Branches Return to Curbside Service Only January 5th

CLEARVIEW, ON January 4, 2022 – Beginning on Wednesday, January 5th, all branches of the Clearview Public Library will close to the public and resume full curbside service. Curbside service for pick up and drop off will be available Wednesdays through Saturdays beginning Wednesday, January 5th.

Materials can be requested by phone to the Creemore Branch at 705-466-3011, the New Lowell Branch at 705-424-6288, the Stayner Branch at 705-428-3595, or reserved online at www.clearview.library.on.ca. Calls can be placed Wednesdays through Saturdays for pick up as early as the same day. Free vaccine QR code printing will continue to be offered through curbside service, call your branch for details.

Check-out times will be scheduled via phone by Library staff with residents directly in 20-minute windows. Materials will be placed in a paper bag, along with your receipt, on a table inside the entrance at your pre-arranged window. Should you miss your window the material will be brought back into the branch and an alternate date/time for pick up will be arranged.

Residents are reminded to continue following the advice of the Simcoe Muskoka District Health Unit by staying home if unwell. For more Library information please visit www.clearview.library.on.ca.
