FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Explore the Clearview Public Library Virtually 24/7

CLEARVIEW, ON March 30, 2020 – To stop the spread of COVID-19 all branches of the Clearview Public Library are closed to the public physically, but open for business virtually 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Virtual resources include eBooks, eAudioBooks, eMagazines and other eResources all available online. New eBooks are being purchased for the collection to give you an even greater selection. In addition, educational and recreational links have been added to the website, accessible at www.clearview.library.on.ca

To access these virtual resources Library Memberships can be obtained virtually by emailing the Clearview Public Library's CEO at jlachapelle@clearview.ca. You can also join the library on Facebook for crafts, stories and meditations. The popular Girls Who Code program is also continuing in an online format. Follow the Library on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/pages/category/Library/Clearview-Public-Library-285803031750/>

The Clearview Public Library is committed to helping you find the information you need and keeping you entertained. If you have questions, please phone the Stayner Branch (calls are being answered remotely) at 705-428-3595.

We look forward to remaining an important part of your daily life and are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to welcome you back through our library doors.
