Youth Centre Flips the Switch on the Stayner Tree Lighting December 6

CLEARVIEW, ON, November 12, 2026 – Clearview's annual Stayner Tree Lighting is getting a Whoville makeover this year. The Clearview Youth Centre has teamed up with an unlikely holiday helper, the Grinch, to transform Station Park into Whoville for an afternoon of festive fun on Sunday, December 6.

Families are invited to enjoy an inflatable maze, games, activities, snacks and hot chocolate beginning at 4:00 p.m. before gathering for the official tree lighting at 5:30 p.m.

The Stayner Heritage Society will host a holiday display and refreshments inside the Tourism Centre, while Simcoe County Paramedics will be on site accepting donations for their Toy Drive.

Pull out your best Whoville-inspired outfit and join the Grinch and the Clearview Youth Centre as they light up the tree and kick off the holiday season. The event runs from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Station Park in Stayner.
