Notice – Candidate Information Sessions April 21 and May 28

---

Have you thought about running for municipal Council, but aren't sure what the role really involves? Before making a decision, get a clear and realistic understanding of what serving as an elected official truly means at upcoming Candidate sessions.

Who should attend?

- ✓ Residents considering running for municipal Council
- ✓ First-time or potential election candidates
- ✓ Community members interested in local government
- ✓ Board or committee members thinking about elected office

April 21st - Clerks on Call Session

This free public workshop presented by Clerks on Call offers a clear, down-to-earth look at what it means to serve on Council. You'll learn how municipal government works, what Council members actually do, and what to expect if you decide to run, including time commitments, campaign rules, public expectations, and the realities of being in the public eye.

Want to know more before the session? Consider reviewing the Prospective Municipal Candidate Workbook available at www.clearview.ca/election.

This workshop will be provided in person only.

Date & Time: April 21st, 5:30 PM

Location: Collingwood Legion, 490 Ontario Street, Collingwood

May 28th - MMAH Candidate & Third-Party Advertiser Session
