FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Culture & Sports Hall of Fame Awards Presented for 2025

CLEARVIEW, ON June 11, 2026 – Clearview Township is delighted to announce the 2025 Culture & Sports Hall of Fame Award Winners, honoured at the Hall of Fame Awards Ceremony at the Avening Community Centre on June 10, 2026.

Fellow community members nominated the award recipients for making a positive impact on the sports and cultural community in Clearview in nine distinct categories.

“On behalf of Clearview Township, I am proud to congratulate this year’s Culture and Sports Hall of Fame inductees,” said Mayor Doug Measures. “These individuals and the diverse voices and contributions they represent reflect the very best of our community. From long-standing volunteers to outstanding cultural and athletic leaders, their dedication and passion have helped shape our community and foster a deep sense of civic pride. Their achievements not only enrich our Township today but also inspire future generations to stay involved, give back, and strive for excellence.”

Awards were presented to the following recipients by Clearview Township Mayor Doug Measures, Deputy Mayor Paul Van Staveren and Master of Ceremonies, Arianna Swietlinski:

2025

- Young Leader in Sport – Corey Cox
- Builder Award – Chris Skelton
- Artistic Achievement Award – Jo Christopher
- Athlete of the Year – Ashley Harvey
- Athletic Achievement Award – Nathan Elliott
- Community Volunteer Award – Valerie Bradey
- Community Volunteer Award – Marianne Buie
- Festival & Event Award – Sunnidale Winterama

And the Lifetime Contributions to Community Award, which recognizes individuals who have resided in Clearview Township for a minimum of 10 years, within the categories of sport and culture. The winners have dedicated their time and passion to making a significant impact, and without them, Clearview residents would not have the experiences and opportunities that exist today.

- Lifetime Contributions to Community Award – Judy Hutton
- Lifetime Contributions to Community Award – Seeta Ferris
- Lifetime Contributions to Community Award – Doug Inkster, in memory

The legacy awards are on display in the atrium of the Stayner Community Centre and Stayner Branch of the Clearview Public Library. In addition, the Hall of Fame kiosk recognizes current and past members of the Clearview Hall of Fame and welcomes visitors to learn more about the outstanding contributions of community members.
