FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Small Halls Festival Tickets on Sale July 27

Small Halls Festival, September to November

CLEARVIEW, ON July 27, 2026 – Tickets for Clearview Township's Small Halls Festival go on sale beginning Monday, July 27th at noon. The festival returns this year with events in September, October, and November. Availability to purchase tickets at the door will be limited, so secure your spot by buying online in advance at www.smallhallsfestival.ca.

The festival, a Top 100 Festival in Ontario since 2017, will see the return of old favourites, such as Songwriters that Rock, Amazing Race Clearview: Small Halls Edition, and the Single Malt Whisky Dinner. The event schedule also includes some exciting new additions such as a performance from award-winning Canadian actor and storyteller R.H Thompson, singer-songwriter Shane Cloutier, a Comedy Hypnotist Show and a Staged Reading of Queen Mili of Galt.

Thanks to 2026 Experience Ontario funding provided by the Government of Ontario, the Small Halls Festival will feature a Best of Rural Living Series to kick off the festival season. The series will take place from Friday, September 18th to Sunday, September 20th, featuring the following events:

- Friday, September 18 - Séan McCann, Creemore Station on the Green
- Saturday, September 19 - Dayna Reid, The Duntroon Hall
- Sunday, September 20, 'We Lend a Hand' Film Screenings, Dunedin Village Hall

From concerts, culinary experiences and outdoor adventures in Clearview Township, there is an event for every interest, taste, and budget.

For the full schedule of events, to buy tickets, or learn more about the Festival and Clearview's Small Halls, visit www.smallhallsfestival.ca. The halls are small so don't delay!
